

Bryan Lee Hardman

Career Focus Promoting the Arts Historic Preservation Urban/Environmental Planning & Design Cultural & Heritage Preservation	P.O. Box 7521 Athens, Georgia 30604 706-201-9700 blhardman@hotmail.com www.bryanhardman.com
Education M.E.P.D. (Master of Environmental Planning & Design) 8/2014 - 5/2016 The University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia Thesis topic: "Reusing the Old Monroe Elementary School as a Stage for Establishing a Creative & Educational District" M.H.P. (Master of Historic Preservation) 8/2002 - 5/2004 The University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia Thesis topic: "A Piece of Mind: The Fate of the State-funded Asylum of the 19th Century" B.A. (Bachelor of Arts in Art History) 8/1994 - 12/1999
Professional Experience Summer Intern University of Georgia CED FindIt- Athens, Georgia 6/2015 - 7/2015 - conducted a comprehensive historic resource survey in White County, Georgia using photography, latitude/longitude, and detailed descriptions - met with stakeholders: county historical society, county residents, county staff - entered the surveyed resources into a state database - researched information to be used in a final historic resource report Director Walton County Music Guild- Monroe, Georgia 1/2012 - 7/2014 - nonprofit serving Walton County and the surrounding counties - collaborated with board members, musicians, members, and other organizations to promote music to the county residents - organized about a dozen events a year: concerts, fundraisers, and scholarships - wrote grant and award letters for funding the organization and events - proposed the yearly operating budget and oversaw organization expenses Leadership Group Member Art Leaders of Metro Atlanta (ALMA) 1/2014 – 5/2014 - selected to be part of a group of 56 participants made up of directors, board members, donors, and business owners related to the arts for networking - informative sessions were hosted throughout Atlanta at art and cultural sites - topics discussed were relative to the arts in Atlanta as well as other metro cities in the U.S., current situations arts organizations in the metro Atlanta were facing which included: funding, audience, the board, growth, marketing, partnerships Advisor Monroe Area Cultural & Heritage Museum- Monroe 10/2012 - 2/2014 - provided knowledge of how to run a community nonprofit - worked with various stakeholders in the community to establish the museum Leadership Group Member Leadership Walton 9/2012 – 5/2013 - selected to be part of a group of 20 participants made up of directors, owners, elected officials, and employees from Walton County businesses for networking - informative sessions were hosted throughout Walton County and Atlanta - topics discussed included: community resources, emergency services, school systems, governments in the county, and a trip to the state capitol

Professional Experience
(continued)

Board Member Historical Society of Walton County 9/2011 – 10/2014
- assisted board members and community stakeholders to promote awareness of the county's historic sites and the organization's historic house museum
- provided a partnership connection to other organizations in the community

Director Monroe Art Guild- Monroe, Georgia 1/2009 - 7/2014
- nonprofit serving Monroe, Walton County, and the surrounding counties
- collaborated with board members, artists, members, and other organizations to promote art to the county residents
- organized about two dozen events a year: gallery shows, fundraisers, summer art camp for kids ages 5-17, guest speakers, and downtown festival events
- wrote grant and award letters for funding the organization and events
- proposed the yearly operating budget and oversaw organization expenses
- established a public art sculpture program through a partnership with the city and secured the required funding for seven pieces to be displayed

Judge Governor's Honor Program- Walton County, Georgia 2010 - 2016
- participated in judging high school students in the Walton County Public School system in the areas of art, music, and theatre
- represented the Monroe Art Guild and the Walton County Music Guild

Historic Preservation Comm. Chair City of Monroe- Monroe, Georgia 5/2010 – 11/2014
- appointed to serve as a commission member from 5/2009 until chair in 5/2010
- served as the chair of a commission made up of five total members
- reviewed monthly Certificate of Appropriateness (COA) applications for residential and commercial properties located in the locally designated historic districts
- created a positive dialogue between the city and the residents and owners with applications under review or assisted owners prior to submitting an application

Attendant Development Codes for Cultural Heritage Tourism Districts 03/2008
- learned how communities can establish a tourism districts and why districts can provide an opportunity for design guidelines and growth to communities
- the workshop was a networking tool for elected officials and tourism related individuals of cities and counties in Georgia

Attendant Historic Preservation Commission Training 5/2006 – 4/2013
- trainings were held in Bainbridge, Carrollton, LaGrange, and Milledgeville
- current topics related to historic preservation in Georgia as well as proper procedures and responsibilities were discussed

Historic Preservation Comm. Member Athens-Clarke Co., Georgia 12/2005 – 6/2008
- appointed to serve as part of a seven member commission
- reviewed monthly Certificate of Appropriateness (COA) applications for residential and commercial properties located in the local historic districts
- created a positive dialogue between the city and the residents and owners with applications under review or assisting owners prior to submitting an application
- proposed new local historic districts and historic sites

Attendant Georgia Downtown Conference 10/2005 -10/2006
- host cities were Madison and Valdosta
- current topics related to the promotion of downtowns were discussed
- represented Terracon Consultants, Inc. with a vendor booth

Professional Experience
(continued)

- Staff Historian Terracon Consultants, Inc.- Duluth, Georgia 6/2005 - 2/2006
- assisted in Section 106 Consultation for wireless communication projects throughout the Southeast
- complied with NEPA for the wireless communication projects
- conducted Phase 1 Environmental Sites Assessments (ESA) throughout the Southeast for the wireless communication projects
- researched information for National Register nominations
- Summer Intern Belhaven Improvement Assoc.- Jackson, Mississippi 6/2003 – 8/2003
- compiled three historic resource surveys into one database
- researched and updated information related to the resource surveys
- interacted with representative from nonprofits, city, local, and state levels
- Graduate Assistant University of Georgia- Athens, Georgia 1/2003 – 12/2003
- assisted John C. Waters, Director and Founder of the Master of Historic Preservation program
- researched various local topics related to historic preservation
- made hotel arrangements for two of the annual study travel tours, each two weeks
- Advisor West Virginia University's Community Design Team 2001 – 2003
- worked with professionals from various disciplines depending on the need of the community which had a population of 10,000 or less
- assisting in the promotion of historic preservation resources, ideas, and concepts to four communities: Summersville, Sistersville, Elkins, and Terra Alta
- Fall Intern Ashland-The Henry Clay Estate- Lexington, Kentucky 8/1999 – 12/1999
- inventoried and researched the porcelain and china collection of the estate
- attended the State Conference & State Main Street Conference in November
- Summer Intern City of Radcliff Planning Dept.- Radcliff, Kentucky 6/1999 – 8/1999
- assisted the Planning Director and Code Enforcement staff
- organized the plat drawer files and individual property street files
- attended Planning Commission meetings after preparing reports for those meetings

Professional Certification

- LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) 5/2016 – 5/2017
U.S. Green Building Council
- GACE (Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators)
- Passed the content areas: Art Education K-12, Middle Grades Social Sciences, U.S. History for High School

Software

Word, Excel, PowerPoint, GIS, InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, AutoCAD, and SketchUp

Memberships

- American Planning Association 8/2014 – 1/2017
Historic Oakland Cemetery Foundation 10/2012 -10/2017